REF-702

13 December 1954

Subject: Hans-Ulrich Rudel

1. Hans-Ulrich Rudel, now living in Argentina, no longer intends to come to Germany in 1954. He is currently engaged, together with members of the Argentine and Chilean governments, in making plans for a mountain expedition. Some of the equipment for this expedition will be manufactured in Western Germany by a celanese factory (name unknown.) Kurt Eigenbrodt, Jr., of Frankfurt/Main-Nied, Holtschstrasse 11, has been instructed by Rudel to collect all German-made equipment and ship it to Buenos Aires. The mountain expedition is scheduled to take place at the end of January 1955.

2. Rudel now reportedly intends to visit Western Germany in late March 1955.

1. Field Comment: The same source previously reported that Rudel might visit West Germany in late November 1954. (REF-641)
